NOT SO EXTRAVAGANT.

The Fireworks Tuesday Night Really Cost
But $440.

A good deal has been said about the "reckless" expenditure of money for fireworks by the Republicans at their ratification Tuesday night, and the morning paper said the display cost $4,000.
Some good citizens have criticized the managers for wasting so much money when there are so many people suffering for the necessities of life.

For blowing purposes it is very well to talk about "the magnificent $3,000 display of fireworks" but as a matter of fact all the fireworks burned by the Republicans Tuesday night aside from the displays on the boats cost but $420.

Fireworks are sold by the wholesale dealers at 80 per cent off the list price.

MADE A FAST RUN.

The Santa Fe's California Train Goes Four Miles in Four Minutes.

The Santa Fe's California limited express, due in Topeka at 3:45 p. m., made a remarkable fast run yesterday. She left Kansas City nearly an hour late, and drew into Lawrence forty minutes late.
The run from Lawrence to Topeka, a distance of twenty-six miles, was made in just half an hour, arriving here at 4:10.
The time usually allowed for this run is fifty minutes. The run from Topeka into the Santa Fe depot at Topeka, four miles, was made in just four minutes, according to a man who had a watch in his hand for that purpose. The train is reported to have left Emporia "out of debt," or on time.

SMITH VS. SMITH.

Smith Let Smith's Horse Eat Smith's Hay and Smith Had Smith Arrested.

Mr. Smith, the mail carrier, is in a little police court trouble. He has a horse which he has allowed to tamper at times it seems with the hay belonging to a neighbor whose name is also Smith.
There was a disagreement about it yesterday and in the course of the argument the colored Mr. Smith struck the white Mr. Smith just below the eye. The white Mr. Smith had the colored Mr.
Smith arrested and the case was tried in police court this morning. The judge was in a hurry and will not give his decision till tomorrow.

right end, Harry Coughlin; half-backs, J. A. Augustus and R. C. Osborn; fullback, C. H. Evans; quarter-back, Walter Noble; captain and full-back, C. H.

Hastings will all play in the team.

IN SOCIETY CIRCLES.

Brilliant Reception Given at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. Jetmore.

GENERAL NOTES OF SOCIETY.

Personal Items of Interest About Topeka People and Visitors in Town.

The reception given Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A.
B. Jetmore was the largest and most elaborate of the season. A company of over two hundred people was entertained from 8 till 11 p. m.

At the door a colored footman ushered the guests to the hall, which was aglow with red-shaded lights. The banisters were festooned with asparagus ferns and red chrysanthemums were scattered among the banking of palms, which screened the mandolin orchestra in the west end of the hall. In the front parlor the piano was covered with yellow and white chrysanthemums, and a wreath of smilax above the mantel hung over bouquets of the same flower in these colors.
The piano lamp shade was yellow, with beautiful yellow and white chrysanthemums alternating around it. Just inside this room Mr. and Mrs. Jetmore, their daughter, Miss Myrtle, and son, Dr.
De Forrest received and welcomed their guests. Mrs. Jetmore was attired in black silk trimmed with jet and rich point lace, and wore diamond ornaments.
Miss Myrtle received her guests in a delicate pink hued mousseline de sole over pink lace-trimmed silk. The body, with its duffy sleeves and dainty ruffles, looked like one of Aurora's cloud-heralds.
She carried a pink feather fan. Slippers and gloves matched the charming costume. Assisting in receiving were Mrs. S. M. Gardouhine in black silk with pink stripe, trimmings of pink satin and lace. Mrs. A. Marburg in black velvet with white and gold brocade sleeves, and the décolleté neck outlined with black ostrich feathers. She wore a pearl and diamond necklace. Mrs. Henry Stephenson, who also assisted in receiving, was gowned in white duchesse satin, cut décolleté, with exquisite gar-ture of lace. Miss Jennie Price was charmingly gowned in an Empress costume of white satin with pearl passementerie trimming. Miss Mame Horton also assisted, in a costume of white brocade silk with accordion pleated ruff; Miss Edna Best another of the receiving party, was charming in white tulle silk with white dotted overdress, the neck of her gown being outlined with passies; Miss Gertrude Roberts assisted, in pale blue satin, trimmed with pearl passementerie; Miss Clemmie Linn in blue mousseline de sole over blue silk; Miss Frank Liedtke in pink corded silk with large sleeves of green velvet; Miss Bessie West in white silk with sleeves of cerise velvet; Miss Lulu Man-speaker in a gown of yellow silk and black lace.

In the back parlor several tall piano lamps with red shades, harmonized well with the red chrysanthemums, which with palms and smilax formed the decorations. In the dining room, pink and green were the color tones. Smilax draped the chandelier, and long streamers of pink ribbon wound about with the dainty green vines extended from the chandeliers to the four corners of the table, where each was caught by a bow. The table was resplendent with cut glass and snowy linen. A large cut glass bowl of pink chrysanthemums rested on an oval mirror, which surmounted a centerpiece of interlaced and banded glass brought down work. Colored waiters served the delicious refreshments. Neither pains nor expense had been spared to add to the enjoyment of the evening, and the occasion was rendered one of the principal social affairs of the season.

Mrs. Sterne and Other Ladies Receive.
Yesterday from 2 to 6 Mrs. W. E.
Sterne, Mrs. Austin Prescott and Mrs.
Thomas Cross gave a delightful reception at the home of the latter on West Sixth street. The house was profusely decorated with palms, potted plants and cut flowers. The darkened rooms were lighted up with soft glow and the interior of the house presented a beautiful appearance. Mrs. Cross received her guests in a rich costume of black lace, with diamond ornaments; cream duchesse laced at the throat. Mrs. Sterne was becomingly gowned in white mousseline de sole, with accordion pleated ruffles trimmed in blue baby ribbon; garniture of blue ostrich feathers around the neck. She wore a magnificent necklace of diamonds.
Mrs. Prescott was also in pure white mousseline de sole. Miss Gleanna Cross wore the same beautiful diaphanous material, over pale blue silk. Mrs. Margaret Wiggins and Mrs. Frank Crane and Mrs. Ira Howe assisted the hostesses; Mrs.
Wiggins becomingly gowned in soft white wool goods with trimmings of pink and pearl passementerie; Mrs.
Crane in cream silk with yoke of cream lace; Mrs. Howe in yellow silk with black lace garniture. In the dining room pink roses predominated in the decorations.
The polished necklaces of diamonds, large buds scattered over its surface, and large bowl of the same fragrant buds surmounted an elaborate centerpiece of exquisite Honiton lace. In the evening the ladies entertained at progressive high five.

A Birthday Remembered.
The friends of Miss Jessie McMahon tendered her a surprise party on Wednesday evening in celebration of her fifteenth birthday. Being absent from home a few moments, Miss Jessie returned to find the parlor filled with friends who were holding a "Quaker meeting." Congratulatory followed and the evening passed merrily. Refreshments were served after various forms of entertainment. Those present were:
Misses Erol Buckmaster, Maud Van Houten, Callie Hitt, Ida and Emma Pernous, Sallie Staples, Effie Hazen, Bernice Fuller, Estelle Leon, Ruby Gage,

Grice.

A Surprise Party.
Mr. Frank Hart who was called away from his home at 422 Lehigh street, returned yesterday evening, on his return found his house filled with merry-makers, who had come by invitation of his wife to celebrate his thirty-second birthday.
The surprise was complete, and the evening was spent in games and other amusements, till refreshments were served.
Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Drake, Mr. and Mrs. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. John Beeler, Mr. and Mrs. Max Slusher, Mr.

and Mrs. Louis Horn, Mrs. Gibbons, Mrs.
Praxler, Mrs. C. A. Horn, Mrs. Jones, Mr.

ing novelty.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Seabrooke entertained friends most delightfully last evening, complimentary to their guest Miss Grace Talbert, one of Atchison's most popular society girls. High five and afterwards refreshments were the entertainments of the evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Webb, Misses Kate Gunther, Susie Reeves, Nellie Cross and Grace Talbert; Messrs. Frank Jarrell, H. D. Crosby, Frank Patterson and—Hending.

Mrs. E. B. Merriam entertained friends last evening at her home 1321 College avenue.

ley, Illinois, today. Mr. and Mrs. Devlin will occupy their new residence next week.

iting her daughter, Miss Vivian, and also Mrs. J. F. Carter, returned to Marion today.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Meade, formerly of this city, now of Pueblo, Colorado, entertained a few intimate friends last Monday evening in celebration of their crystal wedding anniversary.

Miss Kittie Dolman will entertain the E. and H. club at her home in North Topeka this evening.

Mrs. L. S. Woolverton entertained a few friends yesterday afternoon.

"JUSTICE" IS UNJUST.
G. P. Allen, Merchant Policeman, Fined for Trying to Stop a Fight.

C. P. Allen was fined $10 in police court today for trying to stop a fight and for hindering justice. He was in Walker's restaurant night before last when Walt Richards came in and began abusing Fred Durein. Allen undertook to persuade Richards to let go and Richards kicked him in the stomach.
Allen is one of the merchant police, and had his cub along in retaliation for the kick he struck at Richards with the club, but Richards warded off the blow, and threw a cuspidor at Allen. Allen is a little old man, while Richards is a big young man, and Allen ran.
That's the story that was brought out in police court this morning. It was no doubt a terrible thing for Allen to do and such flagrant felonies against the peace and dignity of the city of Topeka in general and of the police court in particular must be punished or people would be constantly running over the police and the court in trying to maintain peace. It was difficult for the judge to see that Mr. Richards had been greatly wronged in not being allowed to choke Mr. Durein and kick Mr. Allen all he wanted to without being interfered with, so he fined Allen $10.
There is a moral in this. The next time a man is seen beating another one because he is able to, let him do it. It has been decided that he shall not be interfered with, by the police court of the city of Topeka, in Shawnee county and the state of Kansas.

PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL.

It Is Proposed to Erect It Adjoining the Medical College.

The committee recently appointed by the Presbyterian synod at Salina to consider the advisability of building a Presbyterian hospital in Topeka in connection with the Kansas Medical college, held a meeting at the Copeland yesterday afternoon, and decided that the hospital should be built.
Doctors Stewart, Mincey, Lindsey, Eastman, Mitchell and Sheldon, of the Kansas Medical college, were present at the meeting, and advised the committee that the college would donate a part of its ground adjoining the medical college, corner of Twelfth and Tyler streets, and would bear a part of the expense of erecting the hospital buildings.
The hospital committee will meet again in about three weeks.

"Topeka Is Simply Overjoyed."

W. J. Lloyd returned from Topeka last night. Like all the others who were there Tuesday night, he reports the grandest ratification he ever attended.
One of the peculiar features of the affair was the hand which the women took.
Every lady had a tin horn and all made as much noise as possible. Out here, we may rejoice over the election, but the people of Topeka are simply overjoyed.
—McPherson Republican.

A Fine Passage.

A very vain preacher having delivered a sermon in the hearing of the Rev. Robert Hall, pressed him to state what he thought of the sermon. Mr.
Hall remained silent for some time, but this only caused the question to be pressed with greater earnestness.
At length Mr. Hall admitted: "I am rejoiced to hear you say so. Pray, what was it?" "Why, sir, it was the passage from the pulpit to the vestry."

Mr. Gilbert's Pleasant Sensation.

W. S. Gilbert was lurching, not long ago, at a country hotel, when he found himself in company with three cycling clergymen, by whom he was drawn into conversation.
When they discovered who he was, one of the party asked Mr. Gilbert "how he felt in such a grave and reverend company." "I feel," said Mr. Gilbert, "like a lion in a den of Daniels."

A TEMPLE FOR WOMEN

NEW HOME OF THE CHICAGO YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

It Will Be a Credit to the City and Furnish the Comforts of Home to Many Worthy Working Women—A Useful and Prosperous Organization.

Everybody has heard and read of the Young Men's Christian association for lo, these many years, but it may surprise some readers to learn that there is a Young Woman's Christian association, and that it has done a splendid work, especially in Chicago. It seems to be taken by common consent that there is more need of that particular kind of work in Chicago than in any other American city in proportion to the population. The city is so new, so rapid in its growth and so aggressive, having also the most mixed population of any American city, that there is special need of a home and central agency for women, and just now the good ladies in charge are feeling especially elated over their new and commodious building, which is rising at 228 Michigan avenue on the site of the somewhat historic John B. Drake mansion.

It was in 1873 that the first Young Woman's Christian association was formed, but it was not till 1886 that it became an international affair. There are now in this country over 300 associ-

CHICAGO'S NEW Y. W. C. A. BUILDING.

ations and 19 fully organized state associations. In Chicago the order has a main home temporarily at 291 Michigan avenue, another at 5718 Kimbark avenue, a home for transients at 267 Jackson boulevard and an employment bureau at 243 Wabash avenue, all of which are to be concentrated in the new building, which is also to be a woman's hotel and boarding house. The lot was bought of the Drake estate in 1866 for $40,000 and is now worth much more and is 80 by 161 feet in area. It will all be covered by the new seven story building, of which the front will be of raindrop browstone in the basement and above that fire pressed brick, ornamented with terra cotta.

The entrance will be through an ornate portal, with marble steps. To the right as one enters will be the library and to the left the reception room and parlor. Back of the entrance hall the gymnasium is to extend the full length of the basement, and the rest of that floor will be taken by the dining room and kitchen. On the next floor above is the assembly hall, with seats for 600 and extending through two stories, and back and above that will be library, dispensary, lodging and other rooms. The interior will be finished throughout in hard woods and all the building well lighted and warmed. It is a surprise to learn that with all this the charge for board and room, light and heat included, will only be from $3.50 to $5 per week, the difference being only in the location of the rooms, of which there will be 250. And yet the ladies in charge expect the institution to be self supporting after the first year. The building will cost $125,000 and the furnishing probably $20,000.

The work of the association is meant to be altogether preventive. "We do not," says Mrs. Leander Stone, the president, "wait until they go over the precipice and the ambulance comes with clanging bell, attracting the attention of the world. Indeed our work is so quiet very little is known of it." In the constitution adopted 18 years ago it is declared that:

The object of the association shall be to promote the moral, religious, intellectual and temporal welfare of women, especially women who are dependent upon their own exertions for support, a part of this work to consist in organizing homes and securing employment for self supporting girls and those endeavoring to become such and furnishing medical aid through a well regulated dispensary.

The association has agents, who meet all trains coming from a distance and passenger steamers during the season and direct all women traveling alone to safe lodging and boarding houses and give all desired information about connecting trains, suggest economical methods of transferring baggage and in all ways assist those who are confused on arrival in a strange city.

These agents tell many interesting stories of their encounters with a certain sort of women who seek their prey at the great railroad stations. In the year 1885 they guided some 6,000 persons aright and rescued many young girls who had already been taken in charge by female harpies.

The cosmopolitan character of the human inflow to Chicago appears in the fact that the women thus cared for were from 24 states and territories, from 12 European nations and from Canada and Asia.

John Bull Owes Up.

In an interview in an English weekly paper Mr. Ben Davies said, "From the musical point of view I must confess that the American people are considerably in advance of us," and he added that this was possibly owing to the German element in the United States.
